LEGACY TOUR

2012

A Multi-Generational Journey
Through East-Central Europe to Israel

June 25 – July 11, 2012

Join us in an amazing journey of discovery. Learn more about Jewish history, the Holocaust, and vibrant Israeli society on this trip of a lifetime. We will visit impressive new museums and memorials in Berlin; walk the silent paths of Auschwitz-Birkenau with a Holocaust survivor; celebrate a joyful Shabbat in the historic Jewish neighborhood of Krakow; and enjoy life in Jerusalem.

The student and adult groups will be traveling on separate, but parallel itineraries with special opportunities for conversations across the generations.

Morgan Blum, Director of Education, JFCS Holocaust Center, and Lehrhaus Judaica's Rabbi and Senior Educator, Peretz Wolf-Prusan, will lead the study tour.

The format will be conducive to families (with children at the 10th grade level or older) wishing to travel together or adults traveling independently.

Space is limited. For more information, contact Morgan Blum, Director of Education, JFCS Holocaust Center, at MorganB@jfcs.org or 415-449-1289.
