

Growing Up Interfaith

Personal Stories
Current Findings
Best Practices

Sunday, May 22
1-5 pm | Free
Temple Sinai, Oakland

Building
Jewish
Bridges

Since the advent of the term “interfaith,” the Jewish focus has been on the intermarried couple. We will spotlight the unheard voices of the children of these couple.

Keynote

Dr. Bruce Phillips: in-progress study of adults from interfaith families, Somewhere In Between

Workshops

Dr. Joel Crohn: Balancing Your Relationship and Your Parenting Responsibilities

Rabbi David Kasher: What Is a “Torah” Life and Do I Want That?

Dr. Richard Leavitt: Giving Your Child a Comfortable, Confident Identity

Rabbi Susan Leider: Patrilineal Descent and Choices: A Conservative Rabbi’s View

Kim Carter Martinez: Taking Charge of Your Jewish Identity

Helena McMahon, LMFT and Rabbi Peretz Wolf-Prusan: A Therapist’s View of Religion and Relationship

Panel of Adults From Interfaith Families

Growing Up Interfaith: What Worked, What Didn’t

This Is Bay Area Jewry

12 pm tour of exhibition
More details on other side

Co-sponsored by: Numerous Bay Area Jewish organizations

Supported by: Ingrid D. Tauber Philanthropic Fund of the JCF and the Koret Foundation

Photos: Lydia Deniller

Register: lehrhaus.org