This Is Bay Area Jewry

The first in a series of photo essays on the changing nature of our community

Presented in cooperation with the Gallery Sinai Visual Arts Committee

April 13 - June 30
Temple Sinai, Oakland

- 16 individuals and families profiled
- Born Jewish, Jews by choice, Jews of color, LGBT, and patrilineal Jews are represented
- Ashkenazi Jews, as well as those with African, Asian, Latino, and Middle Eastern heritage featured
- Everyone in the portraits has loved ones who are not Jewish; the reality of Bay Area Jewry is that we are all touched by our non-Jewish family members.
